THE WORK OF THE EVENING

Brother Philip Purcell will speak to his theory of how Masonry expresses a public good. He applies social science methods to test the claim of a fraternity, which spans network language codes. And then what the theory might mean in day-to-day terms. Philip will lightly touch on his statistical work. The full paper will be posted to the Linford website after the presentation.

'ADA ...'

This month's ADA ... is an extract from a section headed 'Freemasonry and Contemporary Culture' in Chapter 18, Freemasonry and Performance, by Kristiane Hasselmann, of Handbook of Freemasonry [Brill 2014] edited by Henrik Bogdan and Jan A.M. Snoek.

VALE RWBro Peter Bindon KL PAGM

Bro Peter was a valued contributor to, and supporter of, Linford's activities, and the Craft in general. He was KL for NSW&ACT in 2016-2018. Besides living in our memories, he will be remembered in the form of the Yass Masonic Centre's Library which he created.
